

A fun orienteering event for all the family

on Saturday 31st October 2009

In Eaves Wood, Silverdale

Since it is Halloween we cannot guarantee the absence of ghosts, ghouls and vampires,

Park at Silver Sapling Guide Camp adjacent to National Trust car park - Grid. Ref SD 470759, entrance will be signed.

- Assemble at 16:30 ready for a 17.15 mass start
- Expect a simple 45 minute score event (ie visit the controls in any order) with a twist - Full instructions and help on the night
- Bring torches/headlights, walking or running-shoes, warm/waterproof togs, whistle, compass and a watch. Oh, and a mobile phone if you have one, just in case!
- Go solo, as a pair or in a group
- Fancy dress optional but encouraged – prizes for the best! Campfire and marshmallows if weather permits.

Fees are £2.50 for an adult or family group (which includes 1 map) plus 50p for additional maps (which makes it more fun for you all, suggest at least 2 maps for a family of 4)

If possible please let me know by 9pm on Thursday 29th October if you are coming and how many maps you would like
